Be a Safe Driver. Don't Drive Distracted.

Safety advocates agree, Talking and Texting on a handheld cell phone while driving is just too dangerous.

As of January 2nd, 2011 it is illegal to text or talk on a handheld cell phone while driving in Delaware. So put down the phone or pick up a $50 fine. Young drivers on their GDL, or driver's permit, are not even permitted to use a hands free cell phone while driving. They will lose their permit for 1 month when caught.

The Delaware Office of Highway Safety and Bayhealth Medical Center ask you to take the Distracted Driving pledge on the back of this card. To learn more about the dangers of talking and texting while driving visit www.ohs.delaware.gov and www.bayhealth.org.
