"Texting and driving has to stop... too late!!"

Brandi: "Tee'jay, I told you to stop texting and driving. It's not safe."

Tee'jay: "Look Brandi, I know how to drive. Stop being so paranoid.

Brandi: "Tee'jay, I'm not paranoid. I'm only 16 years old and I want to be able to live for a very long time and have a baby, at least one and get married."

Tee'jay: "Brandi, I understand where you're coming from. Okay!!!!"

Brandi: "Nothing is more important than our lives. Just put the phone away, please!"

Tee' jay: "Alright! I'm about to. Let me send this last message."

Brandi: (sighs) "One day, you'll learn your lesson (mumble)."

Mom is calling...

Brandi: "Yes mother dear?"

Mom: "Where are you guys?"

Brandi: "Almost home. We'll be there in like five minutes."

DISCLAIMER: The original thoughts and materials of the submissions are the property of the authors and any unauthorized use is not permitted.

Mom: "Ok, love you and be careful."

Brandi: "Love you too mom, and we will!"

(the second I hang up with mom tee'jay and I crash the car down the street from where we live!)

Brandi: "Tee'jay look out!!"

(It is already too late to stop, The moment he looked down at his phone our lives were gone!!!)

(mom calls both of our phones; neither of us answers!)

DISCLAIMER: The original thoughts and materials of the submissions are the property of the authors and any unauthorized use is not permitted.

Hello everyone. My name is Brandi Thompson. I'm sixteen years old and was killed in a texting and driving situation. Well, you know I never wanted to hurt my family this way. It was very tragic. It was in the summer time, Saturday afternoon. We were about to have a nice big barbeque, I couldn't wait friends were coming over family was coming to visit. We just got a new pool put in and we were getting a water slide. I was thinking about some sneaky things. I love picking with my friends and family members. But, any way back on topic. On the way home from Federalsburg, Maryland, my brother was very excited about the barbeque. He told all, well almost all of his friends. I kept telling him Tee'jay, put the phone up its not safe. Anything can happen to us. You wanna know what his response was? "Brandi every second I look up at the road", and I said "yeah, and the other seconds you're looking at your phone. Something can shoot out in front of us that quickly and it would be too late to stop. He told me that after that last message he was sending he was gonna put it away. Sad thing about it was he never got to send the message. The accident happened so quickly, it was just a black out to me. I was gone for life, just gone I didn't even get to tell my family and friends that I loved them. I looked at it as if I was going on a really long vacation and never coming back. My body was dead and gone but my spirit wasn't. I got out of my body and looked down my street. I always thought that ghost didn't have feelings. Well, they do me and my brother we're taking from this world and nobody could bring us back, not even my parents who brought us into this world. It was so many people out there so many fire trucks, ambulance, cops, regular people, except for my family they had no idea what was going on. I almost forgot my sister that lives in Federalsburg Maryland and was suppose to be behind us or at least leaving her place in a few minutes. Through a mixure of fresh leaked oil and smoke, I had to see the car and my brother. I was terrified over the whole situation. I hear screaming coming from one direction I look back and it was my sister running to the car crying and screaming oh... NO...NO...NOOO! People who we're watching started crying. I walked up to my sister and I said, Angel I love you, but I was told I needed to go on a really long trip and never come back. I love you, big sis, and forever you will be in my heart. I will always be looking over you no matter what. I gave her a hug and a kiss on the forehead. She was still crying, leaning up against me and our brother asking god why we had to leave early. Sad thing bout this was, I was still alive. Only now I was invisible to the world. The cops tried pulling my sister away from our dead bodies. It didn't work. She didn't know how to call mom and tell her that her two youngest babies are dead. She calls mom. All mom could hear in the background were big trucks and a whole bunch of commotion. Angel was on the phone with mom, she noticed that angel been crying.

DISCLAIMER: The original thoughts and materials of the submissions are the property of the authors and any unauthorized use is not permitted.

DISCLAIMER: The original thoughts and materials of the submissions are the property of the authors and any unauthorized use is not permitted.

Angel whats the matter!? Angel still was on the phone quiet, eyes filt with tears nose running. Angel are you ok? Their gone and nothing can bring them back... angel what are you talking bout honey said mom. Brandi and tee'jay are gone, their dead and nothing can bring them back. Angel started crying. What mom said with tears running down her eyes not my babies no angel your mistaking I just got done talking to Brandi there on there way. NO,NO mom their not, their down the street laid down on the ground dead. Oh god mom said she dropped to the floor crying her eyes out my father and older sister ran over to her quickly, whats the matter... their gone my babies are gone, their dead. My whole family ran down the street to the accident, they dropped they couldn't believe what they were seeing in their eyes. People were screaming and crying some people were shocked, my mother had ran to both of our bodies sat on the road and held us in her arms kissing our bloody faces. I walked over to her and told her I loved her and told her I was her watcher and her protector now. My dad was heartbrokened he walked over to my mom and took her hand stood her up gave her a hug, he told her that it was unbelieveable he started crying and she did to. People were taking pictures and more and more crouded around. It literally took four hours for the accident to get cleaned up. When the coast was clear my family was still there, the only thing left of me and my brother was the blood on the road. I suffered by watching them suffer. I TRIED!!! I tried so hard to ge there attentioni even went to each individual and yelled in their ears to tell them I loved them and im here. That's all I wanted to tell them, I love them all. But im gone. They were the only ones I could lean on and talk to, now im lonely... just an invisible girl that want her family back!

DISCLAIMER: The original thoughts and materials of the submissions are the property of the authors and any unauthorized use is not permitted.

God im your angel now!!!

Texting and driving has to stop.... Too late!

DISCLAIMER: The original thoughts and materials of the submissions are the property of the authors and any unauthorized use is not permitted.