From the Delaware Office of Highway Safety
Click It or Ticket

It's that time of year again. This year marks the 13th year that the Office of Highway Safety has teamed up with Delaware Law Enforcement Agencies to educate the public and enforce the seat belt law during the annual Click It or Ticket Campaign.

Get the Facts

In Delaware, being safe while on the roadway is a top priority. A seat belt is simple and easy to use and when used correctly, you are 50% more likely to survive a crash.

- Everyone in the vehicle, including backseat passengers and children, must wear seat belts properly.
- Lap and shoulder belts must be worn low across the hips and across the chest.
- Children must be in an age/ weight appropriate seat. The back seat is safest for all children under the age of 12.
- Since it is a primary law, a police officer may pull a vehicle over if anyone is observed not wearing a seat belt.
- Drivers who are unbelted, or have unbelted passengers, may face a fine and court costs totaling $83.50

You will see messaging from OHS on television, on the web, while listening to the radio, on billboards, and at your place of business. Join the other 88% of Delawareans who already buckle up. Every trip, Every time.
